How is a live Exchange Rate displayed?

The rate is displayed per global FX markets convention.

If GBP in your transaction, it will be the base currency in all cases i.e. GBPUSD 1.1500, 1 GBP buys you USD 1.15; GBPEUR 1.2500, 1 GBP buys you EUR 1.25

The corresponding value in the Debit Currency is shown using red, green or black text and colours combined with a coloured up down arrow indicator.

The colour and arrow indicator values are:

- |   |   |
|---|---|
| 1. Red text with red triangle pointing down   | The corresponding value has decreased   |
| 2. Green text with green triangle pointing up | The corresponding value has increased   |
| 3. Black text displayed without a triangle    | The corresponding value has not changed |
